

2019 AIHEC TRADITIONAL PLANTS AND HERBS COMPETITION

REGISTRATION FORM

Name: _____

Date: _____

Tribal Affiliation: _____

School/ Institution _____

Year in College: _____

fill out, scan, and send to: awhitedirt@cdkc.edu.

The Traditional Plant and Herbs Competition will be hosted on the Chief Dull Knife College web page@ www.cdkc.edu Click on "Inside CDKC", and select "Moodle". Upon arriving at the competition registration you will be given a code to log into the classroom course where you will be competing.

2019 AIHEC Traditional Plants and Herbs

Competition Rules

1. The Traditional Plants and Herbs Competition will be hosted on the Chief Dull Knife College web Page @ www.cdkc.edu Click on "Inside CDKC", and Select "Moodle" with Multiple selection Questions.
2. The Traditional Plants will be selected from the Native Region of the host committee.
3. A list of all the traditional plants, with acceptable scientific, Native, and Common Name, as well as acceptable uses, will be available as part of the registration packet.
4. Plants will be identified with appropriate information immediately following the competition.
5. First, Second, and Third Place will be awarded.
6. Tribal College student participants will have up to two (2) hours to complete the competition.
7. There can only be one (1) Tribal College student participant at a laptop at a time during the competition.
8. Reference Material is not permitted during the competition.
9. Common names or traditional uses may vary; check the registration- reference list for acceptable plant names and uses.
10. Traditional plants may have more than one (1) traditional use; however, only (1) traditional use is needs to be provided for each plant in the competition. Each tribal college student participants' list will be providing one (1) traditional use for each plant.
11. Any alternate use for a traditional a traditional plant that tribal college student participant wishes to provide during the competition shall be cleared by the host committee coordinator prior to the start of the competition. Any traditional use provided by the tribal college student participant shall be verified as a traditional use of the host committee region.
12. Tribal College Student participation shall list the scientific name, common name, the regional name, and traditional use for each plant.
13. Traditional uses for each plant shall be specific beyond simply "Food" or "Medicinal".
  - vi. For Medicines, Tribal College student participants shall identify the part of the plant that is consumed.
  - vii. For Foods, The Tribal College student participants shall identify the part of the plant that is consumed.
  - viii. For Building materials, Tribal College Student participants shall identify the part of the plant that is used and give an example of its uses.
  - ix. For other uses, Tribal College Student participants shall identify the part of the plant used and its uses.